

Reed's Reports Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2025 Results; Announces Leadership Transition

March 24, 2026

Profitable Growth Initiatives Lead to Sequential Quarterly Improvement

Neal Cohane Appointed Interim Chief Executive Officer

NORWALK, Conn., March 24, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Reed's, Inc. (NYSE American: REED) ("Reed's" or the "Company"), owner of the nation's leading portfolio of handcrafted, natural ginger beverages, today announced financial results for the three months and 12 months ended December 31, 2025. Additionally, the Company announced that Neal Cohane has been appointed to serve as interim Chief Executive Officer and member of the board of directors, effective today. Former CEO and Board Member Cyril Wallace has stepped down. The board has begun conducting a search for a permanent CEO.

Leadership Transition

Cohane is a highly accomplished and seasoned retail leader. He brings decades of leadership experience across the beverage industry and a proven track record of building high-performing commercial organizations, scaling national distribution, and driving sustainable growth for consumer brands.

Most recently, Cohane was appointed by the Company as chief operating officer in January 2026. Prior to that, Cohane was chief sales officer at Eastroc Beverage. He previously founded Rootstock Brands, Inc., where he advised beverage companies on go-to-market strategy and execution. He is well known to Reed's, having previously served as the Company's chief sales officer for more than 15 years, playing a central role in expanding the brand's footprint and strengthening key retail and distributor relationships. Earlier in his career, he held senior leadership roles at PepsiCo, SoBe and The Coca-Cola Company.

"Neal's deep understanding of Reed's, combined with his extensive experience scaling beverage brands, makes him an ideal executive to ensure a seamless transition as Reed's enters its next phase of growth," said Shufen Deng, chairperson of the board of Reed's.

"Reed's is a powerful brand with an unparalleled offering and product portfolio," Cohane said. "I have a deep belief in our strategy, and I look forward to working with the leadership team and our partners to continue strengthening our business and driving profitability through operational discipline and execution. My focus will be on our people, operations and customer experience, working together to advance our strategy."

"The Board is grateful for Cyril's contributions to Reed's, and for laying the foundation for the next phase of growth for the business," said Michael Tu, board director of Reed's.

Additionally, Tina Reejsinghani has departed Reed's as chief marketing officer. Board member Rudolf (Ruud) J.M. Bakker, who has 25 years of global leadership experience across the beverage industry, is stepping in as outsourced fractional CMO.

Q4 2025 Financial Highlights (vs. Q4 2024):

- Net sales were $7.5 million compared to $9.7 million.

- Delivery and handling costs were $2.46 per case compared to $3.00 per case.
- Selling, general and administrative expenses were $4.0 million compared to $4.9 million.
- Net loss improved to $3.8 million compared to $4.1 million.
- EBITDA¹ was $(3.6) million compared to $(3.1) million.

FY 2025 Financial Highlights (vs. FY 2024):

- Net sales were $34.1 million compared to $38.0 million.
- Gross profit was $7.0 million compared to $11.4 million, with gross margin of 20% compared to 30%.
- Delivery and handling costs remained flat at $2.75 per case.
- Selling, general and administrative expenses were $16.6 million compared to $13.5 million.
- Net loss was $15.8 million compared to $13.2 million.
- EBITDA¹ was $(14.6) million compared to $(7.3) million.

Management Commentary

"The Company made important strides during the fourth quarter to stabilize the business and reinforce the operational framework needed to support sustainable growth,” said Cohane. “We also saw sequential quarterly improvement in net sales, gross margin, and net loss, reflecting early progress in our efforts to improve operating performance. We achieved encouraging sequential quarter sales growth with select natural, specialty, grocery, mass, and e-commerce customers primarily driven by increased retail velocity and seasonal product offerings.”

“Our recent uplisting to the NYSE American exchange represents another meaningful step forward, enhancing our market presence and positioning Reed’s to engage a broader base of investors as we continue building a profitable, growth-oriented business.”

“Our focus remains on profitable growth. We will continue to leverage our in-house sales team with outsourced national brokers to secure new customer and shelf space opportunities. We will also keep expanding the reach of our direct store distribution network, investing in brand marketing and product innovation, optimizing operating efficiency, and expanding across Asia. These strategic initiatives are centered on delivering the highest quality Reed’s products to our customers and consumers – and achieving profitable growth for our shareholders.”

¹ EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure. Definition of the non-GAAP measure used by Reed’s and a reconciliation of such measure to the related GAAP financial measure can be found under the sections below titled “Non-GAAP Financial Measures” and “Reconciliation of GAAP Financial Measure to Non-GAAP Financial Measure.”

Fourth Quarter 2025 Financial Results

During the fourth quarter of 2025, net sales were $7.5 million compared to $9.7 million in the year-ago period. The decrease was primarily driven by lower volumes with recurring national customers and higher promotional and other allowances.

Gross profit for the fourth quarter of 2025 was $1.5 million compared to $2.9 million in the year-ago period. Gross margin was 20% compared to 30% in the year-ago period. The decrease in gross margin was primarily driven by inventory write-offs and higher cost of goods sold.

Delivery and handling costs were reduced by 35% to $1.1 million in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to $1.7 million in the year-ago period. Delivery and handling costs were 14% of net sales, or $2.46 per case in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to $3.00 per case in the year-ago period.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were reduced by 19% to $4.0 million compared to $4.9 million in the year-ago period. The decrease was primarily driven by lower contract proceedings and asset impairments.

Net loss during the fourth quarter of 2025 improved to $3.8 million, or $(0.44) per share, compared to $4.1 million, or $(1.33) per share, in the year-ago period.

EBITDA¹ was $(3.6) million in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to $(3.1) million in the year-ago period.

Liquidity and Cash Flow

For the fourth quarter of 2025, cash used in operations was $3.8 million compared to cash used of $3.9 million in the year-ago period.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company had approximately $10.4 million of cash and $9.3 million of total debt net of capitalized financing fees. This compares to $10.4 million of cash and $9.6 million of total debt net of capitalized financing fees at December 31, 2024.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to our U.S. GAAP results, we present EBITDA as a supplemental measure of our performance. However, EBITDA is not a recognized measurement under U.S. GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to net income, income from operations or any other performance measure derived in accordance with U.S. GAAP, or as an alternative to cash flow from operating activities as a measure of liquidity. We define EBITDA as net income (loss), plus interest expense, tax expense, and depreciation and amortization.

Management considers our core operating performance to be that which our managers can affect in any particular period through their management of the resources that affect our underlying revenue and profit generating operations during that period. Non-GAAP adjustments to our results prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP are itemized below. You are encouraged to evaluate these adjustments and the reasons we consider them appropriate for supplemental analysis. In evaluating EBITDA, you should be aware that in the future we may incur expenses that are the same as or similar to some of the adjustments in this presentation. Our presentation of EBITDA should not be construed as an inference that our future results will be unaffected by unusual or non-recurring items.

We present EBITDA because we believe it assists investors and analysts in comparing our performance across reporting periods on a consistent basis by excluding items that we do not believe are indicative of our core operating performance. In addition, we use EBITDA in developing our internal budgets, forecasts and strategic plan; in analyzing the effectiveness of our business strategies in evaluating potential acquisitions; making compensation decisions; and in communications with our board of directors concerning our financial performance. EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool, which includes, among others, the following:

- EBITDA does not reflect our cash expenditures, or future requirements, for capital expenditures or contractual commitments;
- EBITDA does not reflect changes in, or cash requirements for, our working capital needs;
- EBITDA does not reflect future interest expense, or the cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal payments, on our debts; and
- Although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated and amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements that are not historical are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements may be identified by terms such as "believe," "expect," "intends," "outlook," "may," "will" and similar expressions. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements herein with respect to implied or express statements regarding the Company's expectations relating to operational improvements, margin expansion, cost optimization, long-term growth across its core brands, and the impact of recent leadership changes. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations. The achievement or success of the matters covered by such forward-looking statements involves risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, many of which involve factors or circumstances that are beyond our control. These risks could materially impact our ability to access raw materials, production, transportation and/or other logistics needs.

If any such risks or uncertainties materialize or if any of the assumptions prove incorrect, Reed's actual results could differ materially from the results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements we make. The risks and uncertainties referred to above include, but are not limited to: inventory shortages; risks associated with new product releases; the impacts of further inflation; risks that customer demand may fluctuate or decrease; risks that we are unable to collect unbilled contractual commitments, particularly in the current economic environment; our ability to compete successfully and manage growth; our ability to attract and retain qualified management and personnel; our ability to develop and expand strategic and third party distribution channels; our dependence on third party suppliers, brewers and distributors; third party co-packers meeting contractual commitments; risks related to our business expansion and international operations; our ability to continue to innovate; our strategy of making investments in sales to drive growth; increasing costs of fuel and freight; protection of intellectual property; competition; general political or destabilizing events; general economic conditions; the effect of evolving domestic and foreign government regulations; and other risks detailed from time to time in Reed's public filings, including Reed's annual report on Form 10-K expected to be filed on March 25, 2026, which will be available on the Securities and Exchange Commission's web site at www.sec.gov. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and speak only as of the date hereof. Reed's assumes no obligation and does not intend to update these forward-looking statements, except as required by law.
